HELP WANTED: Kingdom Chronicler

As I am about to begin somewhat weightier service to the Outlands, I must resign my position as Kingdom Chronicler. If you'd like more information on this fun, low-stress, high-profile office, contact me at 303-859-7439 or send e-mail to chronicler@outlands.org.

From the Crown

Irel and Rosalind Righ and ban-Righ of the Outlands do send joyful and happy tidings.

Pennsic is now behind Us and We wish to thank all of those that joined Us in the Debatable Lands in the east of the world, for making it a fun-filled event for us all. Our hopes are that all gentles from across the Known World made safe and comfortable travels to their homes where ever that might be.

We also have the privilege of announcing the elevation and investiture of the two newest jewels in Our baronial crown as well as the first representatives in these recently elevated groups. The Board of Directors having approved the petitions for the shires of Caer Galen and Fontaine dans Sable in their July meeting will give the Outlands her first new baronies in some 10 years.We thank all of the good gentles of each group that worked so hard for the advancement of their group and taking the time to give Us their counsel in Our choosing of their first representatives to Our court. We have chosen for the founding nobles of Caer Galen, Master Massimiliano Pontieri dal Sasso and Lady Yazida bint Zarif to be invested at Crown Tournament and THL Duncan Alastair MacRae & THL Mary of Lyonshall for Fontaine dans Sable at Coronation. Please join Us in congratulating them and ask all that may, to aid and support these groups in the new endeavors that lie ahead for them.

The Known World Costume and Rapier Collegium is fast upon Us and We invite all of our good populace to come and join Us there. In conversations with the autocrats We are sure that there will be something for everyone at this event. I know that they are still looking for teachers in both aspects of this fine event and we encourage anyone with an interest to do so now. This is a chance to show the Known World the talented populace of the Outlands that make us the great and mighty kingdom that we are.

We thank all of those fine gentles that have gifted Us with largess during the reign thus far. Your generosity has warmed Our hearts. We ask that if you have further gifts to Us that you attach your name and contact information to the item so that proper thanks can be given for your time and efforts. Thank you once again from grateful monarchs.

Thanks also need to go out to all those gentles that have given Us their counsel by way of award recommendations. The online award rec form has made the job of organizing and recognizing those good gentles of Our realm so much easier. Thank you all.

Please join Us in congratulating Mistress Maria Sol de Leon for her elevation to the Order of the Pelican and Sir Bjarki Gullbjornsson upon his Accolade of Knighthood. Both were granted at Barons War in Our barony of Dragonsspine.

We look forward to the selection of Our heirs and the twilight of Our time as your monarchs. The grace and dignity that has been shown to Us has truly warmed Our hearts.

As leaves once green turn to gold, time marches ever onward. Already in the September of Their reign (so to speak), Their Royal Majesties are minded to find Heirs to Their Throne. In preparation for that day when, like the tree that is felled by nothing less mighty than the passing of measureless years yields up its fertile ground to the barest of seedlings, their Majesties must cede their Noble thrones to their successors, the Shire of Caer Galen will host the Outlands Crown Tournament on the 13th of September, A.S. XXXVIII.

The Tournament site opens at 8:00 AM for setup, and the list will begin at 10:00 AM. The list will continue until Their Majesties' Heirs have proved their claim by right of arms.

The Feast Hall opens at Noon for setup, and will remain largely empty until 5:00 when we anticipate the fighters and tourneygoers will begin to arrive.

As if the clash of arms and the roar of the crowd were not enough excitement for one day, there is more to behold! Sound the trumpets, let choirs of mythological pan-cultural winged messenger spirits sing until their voices reach the stratosphere! At Evening Court, Their Majesties will invest Master Massimiliano and Lady Yazida as the Founding Baron and Baroness of the newest Barony in the Kingdom of the Outlands - the first new Barony in over ten years!

Being the Defender of the Shire of Shire of Dúthaich Beinne Áird is a heavy burden. Are you heavy enough? Do you have the machismo, prowess and stamina to carry the great mace of Shire of Dúthaich Beinne Áird? Can you pronounce our name?

After a lapse of almost four years, the Shire is pleased to announce it has need of a new Defender. This gentle will prove his or her prowess with weapons of heavy combat, in a tourney to be run by the current defender, Master Gwilim de Glamorgan. To show you how long this poor gentle has carried the mace, he won it when he was Lord Gwilim! Ah, but this year's winner will not have to wait so long, for plans are afoot to make this an annual event.

Come join us for a heavy weapons tournament drawn from the evil mind of Master Gwilim, demonstrations of handicrafts (we are also using this as a demo for the SCA on campus), and for a sumptuous feast prepared by THL Galiana fitz William. There will be an A&S competition (open to all). Bring your toys, bring your finest work, and dress in your most ostentatious garb! Feast Day of Saint Golias

College of Saint Golias, October 4, A.S. XXXVIII

Unto all the fine gentles of these fair Outlands does the College of Saint Golias send warmest greetings!

Twenty-six years has this fine College dedicated ourselves to the most honorable pursuits of our patron Saint. Many great endeavors have we undertaken in our sacred quest for the finest Wine, Women, and Song. Upon the Fourth day of October we welcome all good gentles to celebrate with us the Feast Day of Saint Golias, and to share the fruits of our labors.

The Celebration will commence at 10 a.m. on the New Mexico Tech Athletics Field (801 Leroy Pl. Socorro, NM 87801) with a game tourney, since it was ever Saint Golias' duty to spread the knowledge of dice, cards and other such challenges of wit and skill. Following the merriment, fierce combat shall commence to determine the new Defender of Saint Golias, as well as our patron saint's First Blade.

The evening would not be complete without feast and frolic, and both shall be had at the New Mexico Tech SAC (801 Leroy Pl. Socorro, NM 87801), although said feast-hall is subject to change at the whim of the Gods. Please send word of your willingness to join in our merriment by September 4, 2003 to ensure yourself a seat at our table.

TAVERN BRAWL!
YES!

From the Earl Marshal

Greetings Outlanders,

The summer months have been glorious times on and off the field of battle. For some, killing has been least in their minds, most especially Duke Hrothgar with the welcome birth of a new son! I'm sure he will be back on the field with and fighting with fervor quite soon. Look out in the years to come as many fine warriors across the land have children with whom to teach the art of combat early in life. Just as Zachariah, Magnus, Gere, and others have taken up the sword quite handily; look out soon for the likes of Bardolf and other youth preparing for a shining future of honor and glory!

On to business. We are creating a new authorized fighter list from scratch in hopes to have the opportunity down the road to not always need to see cards at the list table. Get on this list by having an authorizing marshal transfer your existing old card info to a new card. You need not re-authorize if your old green card is still valid.

If you're on this list, we'll have your membership information and your green card information readily available and won't need to see your cards at the list table. Also, if you get a new card and later find out you're not on that list, you need to go back to the authorizing marshal who gave you the card and ask them to get you on the list. They may have missed getting you in the new database. This will be a good system of checks and balances.

REMEMBER, you'll still need to provide your blue card at the gates at events, and you should have it handy in case the marshal-in-charge of an event or MOL does not bring the list.

So, our plan is to begin using this list by September. If you get a new green card in the next month or so, you'll be added and we can begin using this list. ALSO REMEMBER, this list will not be a fail safe way to ensure you don't need your cards at the list. You are ultimately responsible to have your cards available.

IN closing, fighters around the Kingdom need to seek out an authorizing marshal, change over your old card to a new one, and get your name in the database. You need a valid blue card to get a new green card (thankfully there are no other colors to worry about).

As always, be safe and enjoy.

Lavan

From the Kingdom Rapier Marshal

Greetings from the Kingdom Rapier Marshal!

With the changes in the heavy weapons authorizing process, we will be changing over to using the newly revised greencards for all fencing authorizations. For those of you needing to authorize, you will be getting one of the new greencards as a matter of course.

For anyone with a current greencard, you will need to get one of the new cards by the end of October, by checking in with a rapier Authorizing Marshal. To get a new card you will not need to go through the re-authorization process, merely show your current green and bluecards, and your information will be copied over.

Speaking of October… KWAR is coming! This year, the Known World Academy of the Rapier will be held in the Barony of Caerthe in conjunction with the Known World Costume Symposium. For those who have not already done so, I strongly encourage you to plan to attend. It is by far the best opportunity you can get to meet, fight, and learn from fencers from all over the Known World. There will be a raffle for a sword made by Master Ian, a Comedia performance by Master Max and Company, and, of course, Dona Aindrea's Peerage ceremony. You don't want to miss it! Register to attend (and teach!) online at http://www.caerthe.org/kwar/

KRM, Outlands

From the Kingdom Chronicler

Greetings Outlanders!

Have you ever wanted to take a kingdom office, but always missed the opportunity because they seem to be filled before they're announced? Now is your chance!

The Office of the Chronicler is now available! Good fortune has smiled upon My Lady and me, and soon we will be stepping up as the Baron and Baroness of Caer Galen. (Hooray!) But this is good news for you too; I cannot continue to fulfill the duties of the chronicler's office while also functioning as Baron.

Does this mean that if you don't volunteer right now, there will be no Herald? No! I have a deputy in place who can carry us through a few months, but she is starting school soon and will have to devote her energies to that. I have had offers from no less than THREE (you people are amazing) noble Outlanders who are interested in holding the position on a temporary basis only. Overall, we're in really good shape.

But that smacks of leaving things unfinished, and I don't like to do that. I would prefer to leave the office in the hands of someone who wanted to hold it for the duration. I know it sounds silly, but I've kind of grown really attached to this office - even to the point of being all misty while I write this - and I want to make sure it's in good hands before I let it go.

So! If you're one of those fortunate people who are in a position to try it, contact me via e-mail or telephone and we'll discuss the possibilities.

Don Massimiliano Pontieri dal Sasso
Soon-To-Be EX Chronicler

From the Kingdom MOL

Greetings Fighters and Fencers of the Outlands! It is tourney season, and fighting abounds! Please remember that you are required to show BOTH a current blue card AND a current green card. It is a sad day when a fighter is turned away from a tourament because they don't have the proper paperwork. The Marshallate is currently working on a new Authorization list for Armored Combat fighters. This list DOES NOT replace showing your cards to the MIC or the MoL if requested, but will help speed up the process and allow for lost/misplaced cards. Talk to your local Armored Combat Authorizing Marshall about this new list.

On a sunnier note if you are an authorizing marshall or a MoL; you can use the Minister of the Lists web pages to report authorizations, turn in tourney reporting, print a list of current authorizations. You can find them by entering the officers home page: http://www.outlands.org/officers.html and clicking on the Minister of the Lists link.

In service to the Outlands,

Lady Seuilla DeCordoba

From the Windhover Bard

Unto all Outlandish residents do I send my greetings!

This will be my final missive to you as your Windhover Bard. In a very few short summer days, Their Majesties will have a new Windhover Bard. It is with mixed sadness and joy that this happens, as it has been my honor to serve in this capacity for the last year. I have met many of the populace from the Kingdom over and have made many friends. The generosity of the groups and individuals within this Kingdom have astounded and amazed me and by this, I am humbled. I ask only that you remember my time as your Bard with fondness and that you welcome my successor with as much openness and love as you have me.

The second weekend of this month, at Crown Tourney, in the (soon-to-be) Barony of Caer Galen, ban-Fili Cailte Caitchairn and Lady Elaisse de Garrigues will be present to showcase their talents in order to determine which of these good gentles will be my successor. I urge all of you to attend this event and show your support to Their Majesties, Their Highnesses, and these two Bards.

Now, with fond memories, I bid you adieu as your Bard and rejoin the populace as one of many of the wonderfully talented people within this Kingdom.

In Service and Song,

Safya al Mughanniiyah bint Ziyad al-Misri

From the Minister of Arts and Sciences

Greetings Outlanders and many thanks to all those good gentles who attended my StagsCon meetings. Many subjects were discussed including the problems of documentation and many issues regarding competitions.

Changes to A&S Competition Categories: Performing Arts & Letters will now be split into two separate categories - Performing Arts, which will include all forms of performance and just Letters - which will cover written entries such as original poetry and prose. Please see this space and the Outlands list in the coming months for more information or check with your local officer.

Estrella Categories: here they are again -

1) Middle Eastern Costuming
2) Coronets/Crowns
3) Bookbinding

If you need more information on specifics, such as judging criteria, please don't hestitate to contact me.

Lastly, as I am sure many of you are by now aware, there will be no A&S Competition this year, the next Kingdom one will be next April. Dragonsspine will have an A&S Competition Sept. 20/21, Unser Hafen will hold one on October 25th and the Citadel will hold their Collegium Nov. 15. Please watch Kingdom and local calendars as other groups may also be holding competitions. Please consider the extra time an opportunity to really fine tune and improve next year's entries.

Toujours a vos ordres,

Margaret

From the Archer General

Greetings archers!

The preliminary details of the treaty of Estrella have begun to be discussed. If you have any ideas for archery at Estrella please contact Duchess Kathryn or THL Ian Lindsey MacRae as our treaty council contacts or myself. If you'd like to volunteer to help, please let me know. We'll be needing numbers for camping near the archery ranges as well. If you are interested in camping near the archery ranges, please let me know the number in your party, the primary contact and the number and size of any tents. We'll do our best to accommodate all requests.

Thanks to everyone for a successful St. Sebastians and Lonely Mountain. I've had good reports of the archery at both events. We've also had a few questions come up regarding archery in general. To help, Lyssa has offered to write a series of articles to appear both in the OH and on the AG web site. The first installment is in this issue of the OH.

Questions or Concerns on the Archery Range

By THL Léofsige Ó Caoimh known as Lyssa Skrifari
Deputy Archer General for Scorekeeping

Generally practices and events that include archery run safely and with few difficulties but sometimes questions can arise. If you are attending an event or practice that includes archery and have a question, you can work with the on-site folks. Among the archery contacts who can help with questions on-site are the Archer Marshal in Charge (MIC), the Archery Marshals of the Field (MOF), the local Captain of Archers (COA), Deputies Archer General (DAG) and the Archer General (AG). Whenever possible, locate the MIC or the MOF in charge of the range before seeking the other officers. They will be the most familiar with the conditions and schedules at that event.

At every event and practice, you will find an Archery Marshal in Charge. This is the person responsible for coordinating and organizing the archery activities at that event or practice. At practices this person may be the Captain of Archers for the local group or his/her deputy. At events, the MIC is the designated contact for archery activities. Before any event, the MIC will work with the event autocrat to determine a safe area for the archery ranges and the general schedule of activity. The MIC will layout the range perimeter and the target backstops. He/she will also monitor weather conditions to ensure a safe shooting environment. The MIC has the final say as to opening and closing the range. If at any time you have a question on archery or see a safety problem, ask for the MIC. They're your best resource for help at an event or practice.

If you see a safety concern, such as someone crossing into the ranges, you can call HOLD as at any activity in the SCA. One caution: if you're not sure, ask for the MIC or the MOF immediately rather than calling HOLD yourself. When archers are shooting the marshal will be right near the archery line. Use caution when approaching so that you don't cross the shooting line or jostle archers on the line. Identify yourself and your concern. The marshal will be happy to assist you. If you call HOLD at the archery range, be sure to advise the MIC or MOF immediately so they will be able to resolve the problem and reopen the line when the issue has been resolved. If your concern doesn't require a HOLD, the marshal will close the line at the close of the end and work with you to correct the issue.

If your concern requires more assistance than the MIC or MOF is able to provide, they will know where to locate the other officers to provide more help. Whenever possible we suggest asking your questions while still at the event rather than waiting. If it is a genuine safety concern, it is much easier to resolve right there rather than waiting several days. The time delay can make a small problem much more difficult to resolve. Working together we can ensure a safe and enjoyable time for everyone!

For questions on archery, contact the Archer General at oag@pcisys.net or see the AG Web site for more archery related information: http://www.pcisys.net/~lyssa/outlands/archgen.html.

From the Board of Directors

As you may be aware, six months ago the Board forwarded a revised Electronic Communications Policy to the membership for comment. Commentary received was for the most part favorable. Several suggestions were received that the Directors felt should be included in this document. Since those changes were fairly substantive, the Directors decided the revised Policy should be returned to you for comment once again. The text of the revised policy may be found on the SCA website (www.sca.org), or you may request a copy from the SCA's Corporate office. Commentary is due by January 1, 2004.

Also From the Board of Directors

Greetings unto the esteemed members of the Society:

On behalf of the Board of Directors, I present to you the following request for commentary on a possible change to Corpora.

Corpora IV.C.2 currently reads as follows:

> The royal pair must attend their Coronation or Investiture, preside over the Royal Lists to select their successors, and attend the Coronation or Investiture of their successors. They must also attend such other events as may be dictated by the laws of their realm. Should extreme and extraordinary circumstances, such as death, prevent a Crown, heir to the Crown, Coronet, or heir to the Coronet, from completing the these requirements, the Board of Directors may, upon substantial petition, and on a case by case basis, waive these requirements to allow the bestowing of a royal peerage or royal title.

In light of several situations that have arisen in the recent past, in which Crowns have been unable to complete all of the requirements listed above for reasons the Board considered sufficient and extraordinary, but which did not involve death, the Board requests comment on the idea of removing the phrase "such as death" from the above passage.

Please send your commentary to comments@sca.org, or in hardcopy form to:

Society for Creative Anachronism, Inc.
P.O. Box 360789
Milpitas, CA 95036-0789

Commentary will be due no later than January 1, 2004.

And Even More from the Board of Directors

Position Available: Editor and Art Director of Tournaments Illuminated

The warrant for the Editor and Art Director of Tournaments Illuminated expires in January 2004, and the current Editor and Art Director have expressed their desire to step down at that point. In order to ensure a smooth period of transition, applications for the positions of Editor and Art Director of Tournaments Illuminated are now being accepted.

Candidates for the Editor position should have professional editorial experience, the ability to meet deadlines and organize a staff, familiarity with SCA publications, and a vision for the future for Tournaments Illuminated. Experience with academic citation styles and the ability to choose articles based on interest to Tournaments Illuminated's audience, readability, and (where appropriate) historical accuracy are also desirable. Communications skills are also important to the position.

Candidates for the Art Director position should have expertise with modern magazine production, the ability to meet deadlines, and the ability to work with printers. Since the Art Director is responsible for Tournaments Illuminated's layout, he or she should also have access to a computer system configured for desktop publishing.

E-mail access is absolutely vital to the position. Experience has shown that high speed internet access is also very useful, although not required.

Past experience has shown that the Editor and the Art Director work more easily together when they are in the same general locale. This arrangement is preferable, although not required, and candidate teams are encouraged to apply together. Single applications will also be considered. The Editor/Art Director can be the same person if the candidate has all of the necessary skills. Both positions receive a small stipend.

Applications should include a resume and a sample portfolio. Send applications via email to resumes@sca.org

or via US Mail to:

Resumes
Society for Creative Anachronism, Inc.
PO Box 360789
Milpitas, CA 95036-0789

Deadline for applications is September 30, 2003.

The OH is printed presently with an 8-point font that allows for approximately 300 words in a one-half (1/2) page article, and 600 words in a one (1) page article. All event articles are allowed three (3) showings in the Outlandish Herald, one (1) of which MUST be the month of the event (i.e. A June event MUST run in the June OH). The other two publication months are typically the two months preceding the event. An autocrat may request publication more than two months in advance, but that publication will count against the two (2) publication limit. Additional printings may be purchased at the current advertising rates. Generally, event announcements must fit on 1/2 page in months prior to the event, and 1 page the month of the event. Announcements exceeding this size may be trimmed to fit. Optionally, if you wish to exceed this limit, you can purchase space at current advertising rates. Where possible, please provide the Kingdom Chronicler's office with a prior month article, and a month of article fitting the above criteria for publication.
